

Our Everyday Heroes Are A-OK

by Crystal Tancredi

Amble into our Camps on any given summer day. Pause. Breathe deeply. Can you feel it? To the untrained, it is elusive - almost imperceptible. You can't see, smell or taste it, but every Camp parent (and camper) can feel it all around them. On our not-so-good days, it is a blanket, placed gently around our shoulders; on our good days, it is a wave rising to greet us the presence of the Everyday Hero.

Director. Coordinator. Assistant Directors. Counsellors. Counsellors-In-Training. You are all gifted with The Magic.

For most of the year, we look forward to the return of your energy and love to our lives; in the summer, we bask in it. Until next year, we can only wonder at your Everyday Hero Powers, and say a heartfelt and humble "Thank You" for all that you do.

- Not Goodbye, But Until We Meet Again.
