

April 29th, 2011 Is Together For Autism Day!

On Friday, April 29th, 2011, join thousands of Ontarians in celebrating Together For Autism Day.

The Together for Autism campaign offers the opportunity for schools and communities to foster a better understanding about students on the autism spectrum. With this knowledge, students, staff and the community can enhance the whole educational experience for these exceptional students, their classmates and families.

Together For Autism Day directly supports Autism Ontario's Vision of acceptance and opportunities for individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorders.

Each year, the last Friday in April is reserved to promote Autism Awareness in schools and communities across Ontario. The next Together For Autism Day is officially on Friday, April 29th, 2011, but you can have an event anytime you want.

It's easy to organize, and you can register online to receive campaign resources.

Visit <http://www.togetherforautism.ca> for more information on how you can participate. ♥

✎ Our deepest gratitude to the many individual supporters of our Camps, including members of the Camp Committee, who have so selflessly donated their time to the cause of autism awareness and recreational opportunities for our children.
